CHILCOTIN REMOTE LINGFIELD CREEK ACREAGE, BUILT TO BE SELF SUSTAINING!

The 1600 sqft Loghome was built approximate 14 years ago, located in the remote, beautiful Wilderness of the Chilcotin area west of Williams Lake, close to the pristine Chilko River & Chilko Lake.

The cabin was built as a secluded - self-sufficient building with Solar panels, well, etc.

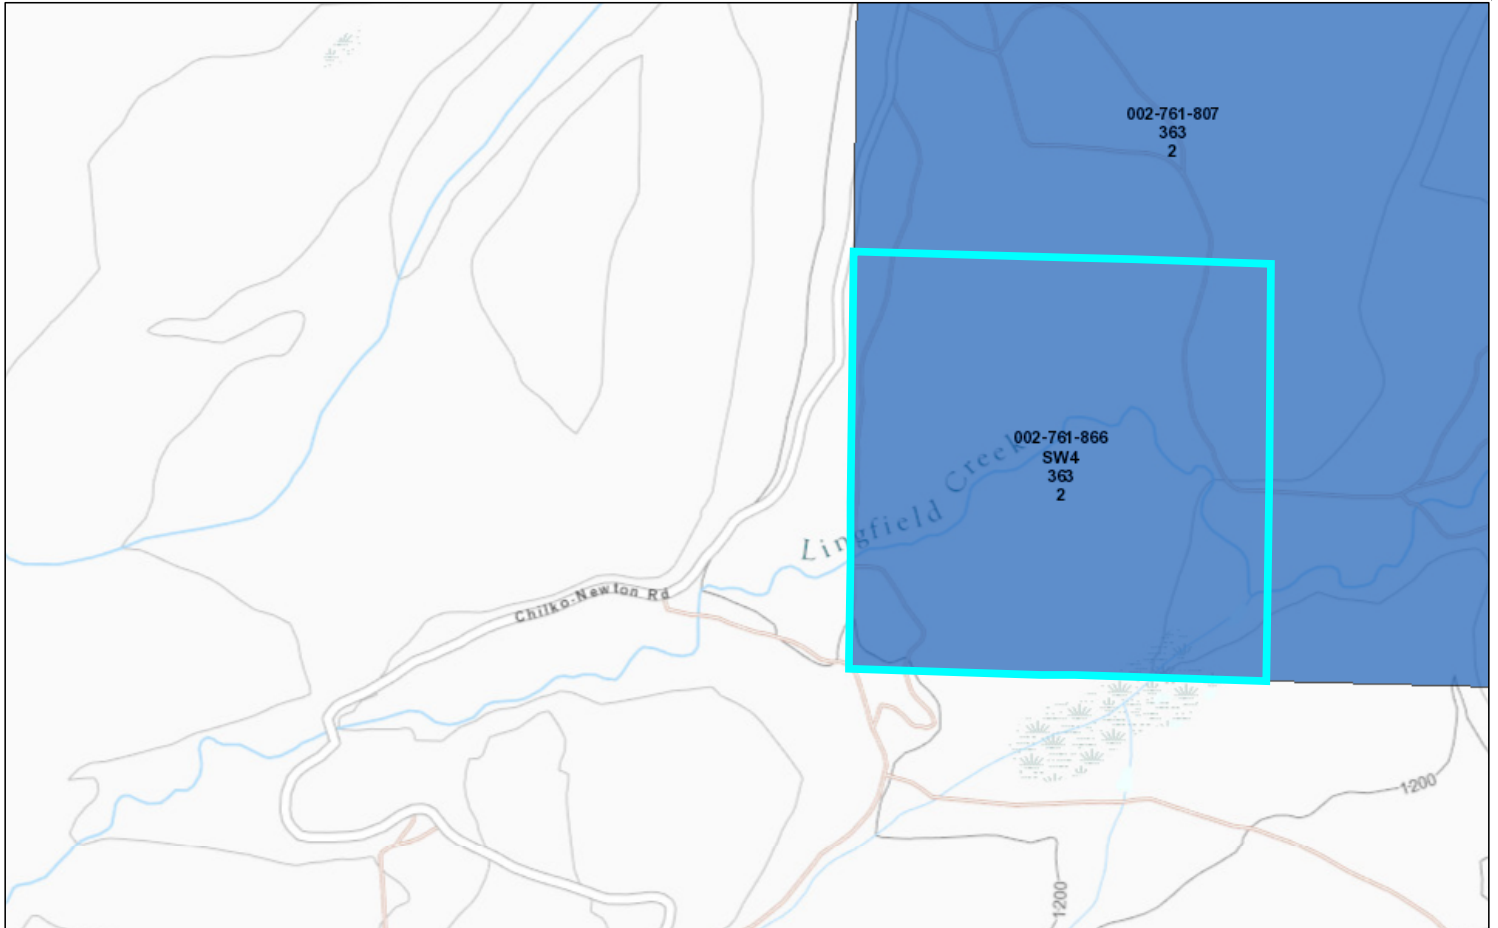

For more than five years, this cabin has been vacant, but with a little TLC, it will shine again.

The Creekfront combines 25 acres of a shared interest in a 160-acre parcel. This is an ideal property for an off-grid hunting camp, outdoor living, and/or all kinds of recreational use.

Access is from Williams Lake via Highway 24 until Tatla Lake, from here you follow the gravel road towards Chilko River Lodge until you reach the property. A 4X4 is recommended. Call for precise directions.
